Scholarship Auditions & Improv Line

Dancers will take part in a 3-hour scholarship audition in styles including jazz, hip-hop, tap and ballet. Dancers may choose to audition in one style, or all four. At the end of the scholarship audition, the finalists will be announced and asked to come back for an "Improv Line" during the Dance-Off on the final day of the event as the last round in the audition process. Scholarship winners are announced at the Dance-Off award ceremony.

Audition Attire: Dancewear & Proper Dance Shoes for Each Genre

How to Enter: Entry is free. Participants must be registered for the convention classes through dance studio accounts. At check-in, teachers will receive wristbands for each student registered for convention as well as an audition number that must be worn in all auditions and on the last day of the event for the "Improv Line" should that dancer be chosen as a scholarship finalist.

Scholarships Awarded: VIP Dance 2019, Visceral Chicago Intensive, Joffrey Ballet School, Institute for American Musical Theatre, Steps on Broadway, Broadway Dance Center, and DC Tap Festival!

*The Shoot by Move Society® The Move Society® Audition is an open call audition by Move Society® Apparel in search for models to take part in the commercial shoot happening throughout the week during the National Finals. On the final day the National Finals event at each Dance-Off, the commercial will be debuted on the big screen!

Audition Attire:

Solid Color Dance or Activewear

Barefoot or Black Tennis Shoes

No Jewelry, No Nail Polish, Minimal Makeup, Hair Down or Ponytail

How to Audition: Open Call Audition - open to anyone wishing to take part ages 6 and up. Competition registration is not required in order to audition. There is no "pre-registration" for this audition. To participate, report to the designated room (to be shown on the Nationals General Schedule) at the time stated, fill out an audition application form and stand in line to be called on to audition. The audition will consist of a quick test shoot and interview. No results are announced at this time. Finalists will be posted on the door of the audition room later that evening.

Callbacks: Finalists are invited to a callback audition on the following day. The callback may consist of a dance audition, interview, special skills assessment, etc. The final cut will be announced during the callback. The selected models will then attend a "makeup for print" training session, be fitted for sizing, and be scheduled for shoots throughout the week.

Accolades: Footage from the shoot will be featured throughout the year on the Move Society Website, Move Society Instagram, Crewtique Instagram, and Facebook Page. Models will receive a headshot session during their shoot and copies of some of their top modeling photos for personal use. They will also receive their official Move Society® Model jacket during the Hollywood DanceOff Awards Presentation!
